

The Gantt chart illustrates the sequential construction process for a building, starting with site preparation and foundation work, followed by wall and floor construction, and concluding with final filling and dismantling. Key milestones include the completion of the foundation (Nov 12), the start of wall construction (Nov 29), and the completion of the roof (Dec 13).

Feinterminplan

für die Gründungsarbeiten mit Personalstandskurve